BARNUM

FAMILY

1350 1907

The Barnum Family.

GENERATION ONE.

Commencing with Sir Walter Barnham, who was born in Kent, England, in the reign of King Edward III, in about 1350, and containing the names as far as could be obtained of the descendants of Thomas Barnum, who immigrated to America in 1640.

INTRODUCTION.

In presenting this Memorial to the public, the author and his co-workers feel that no apology is demanded, from the fact that the older members of our race are passing away, records are being destroyed or misplaced, memories are failing and it is desirable to preserve for future generations interesting and valuable information that will otherwise be irrecoverably lost. No person not familiar with work of this kind can properly appreciate its difficulties. No writer ever has—probably never will—produce such a work, containing a great mass of material, and thousands of names and dates, without numerous errors. For this reason, if for no other, absolute accuracy will not be expected herein. It is believed that all who may see these pages, will feel kindly disposed, and pass over the occasional flaw, to the perusal of that which fully meets their expectations. Knowing the fact that this work is not what it would have been, if we could have received replies to our numerous letters, that have been sent to persons whom we know could have given us much valuable information. But owing to their negligence, or disinterestedness, the replies were never received, consequently there were many unpublishd facts to b rescued from the failing memories of the oldest inhabitants, who will soon carry their information with them to the grave. That errors have occured in so great a number of names and dates as are here given is probable, yes certain, and that names have been omitted, that should have been inserted, is also certain.

We can only say that we have exercised more than ordinary diligence and care in this difficult task. We have searched the Records of Deeds and Wills, Church Records, Army Records, Probate and Statistical Records, Town, County and State Records. Grave yards have been visited, and in fact every stone has been turned where there was a ray of hope of getting any positive and valuable information. While we have in few cases failed of the cooperation which it was reasonable to expect in the obtaining of needed facts, from individuals we have generally found the possessors of desirable knowledge, ready and courteous in imparting it to us. To all who have aided in the preparation of this work,

("and they are so numerous as to render it impracticable to name them here,") the gratitude of the author is due, and hereby expressed. No worthy record could have been written without such aid. Many have signally aided us, among whom may be named. Eugene Turner Barnum, of Detroit, Michigan; Truman P. Barnum, of Hastings, Michigan; Theodore Poine Barnum, of Byron, Michigan; Mrs. Salina Palmer, of Mattewan, Michigan; Miss Bertha Barnum, of Bailey, Michigan; Mrs. Carie Barnum Townsend, of Kendall, N. Y.; Eben L. Barnum, of Worchester, Mass.; Rev. Francis Barnum, of New York City.

The author desires to make especial acknowledgment of the assistance rendered him by the labor of the Rev. Francis Barnum, for his kind council, patient researches, and most valuable assistance.

That this work may meet the approval of its patrons is the sincere desire of the author.

June, 1904.

NOAH G BARNUM,
Albion, N. Y.

In the History of County Kent, England, Vol III, P, 85, the Lineage of Sir Martin Barnham is given thus: Sir Martin Barnham son of Sir Francis Barnham, Baronet, Sheriff of London in 1570, who was son of Sir Stephen Barnham, Gentleman of the Privy Council to Henry VIII. who was Son of Sir Nicholas Barnham, Sargent at Law in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Evidently this is a mistake of the Historian, as Sir Nicholas must have died before Queen Elizabeth was born. We think it should say, in the reign of Edward IV See History of England, N. G. B.

The alabaster monument of Sir Martin Barnham, which stands in All Saints Church, Hollingbourne Hill, England, is this inscribed:

Sacred to the memory of Sir Martin Barnham, sprung from the old Southampton family of Barnhams, who married Ursula, daughter of Robert Rudstone, of Bouton, Nonchesley, and had two daughters, and one son, Francis. On her death he married Judith, the daughter of Sir Martin Calthrope, Lord Mayor of London, by whom he had five sons and five daughters. He died Dec. 12, 1610, aged, 60 years.

That the spelling of the name should be changed after Thomas Barnham emigrated, I can quite understand. It was a time when learning was confined to the Monasteries, and when many or none of the higher classes could barely sign their names, very possibly Thomas Barnham could not do so, and when the time came to record the name, it was written down as it was pronounced. Many hold to the original spelling to this day. So says Henry D. Barnham.

Sir Walter Barnham was born in Kent, England, in the reign of King Edward III. Probably about 1350. He was Chief Baron of the Exchequer in the reign of Richard II.

Sir Nicholas Barnham, Son or Grandson of Sir Walter Barnham, Sargent at Law in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.*

Sir Stephen Barnham, Son of Sir Nicholas Barnham, Gentleman of the Privy Council to Henry VIII.

Sir Francis Barnham, Son of Sir Stephen Barnham was born in Kent, England, in 1517. Baronet, was Alderman in 1568, was Sheriff of London in 1570. Died in 1575.

Sir Martin Barnham, Son of Sir Francis Barnham was born in Kent, England in 1550. Sheriff of London in 1598 Was knighted July 23, 1603. He married Miss Hudston. She died, then he married Judith Calthrope. He died Dec. 12, 1610.

Sir Francis Barnham, Son of Sir Martin Barnham was born in Kent, England, about 1582. Was knighted in 1603. He was in Parliament in 1603, 1604, and 1640. He married Elizabeth Lennard. They had fifteen children, Robert the eldest was a Baron, William the fifth was Mayor of Warwick in 1652.

Thomas Barnum the 15th son of Sir Francis Barnham was born in Kent, England in 1625. He came to America in 1640, and represents the Branch which we record. He located in the town of Bethel, Fairfield Co., Ct. In 1660 he married Hannah Hurd, and had Thomas, 1663, Hannah 1665, John 1677, Ebenezer 1682, and other children who died in infancy, prior to removal to Danbury. He married second time Sarah, daughter of John Thompson and had Francis in 1685, Richard, 1687, Sarah Esther, Mary and one other. The History of Stratford P. 1117, says, in 1694, he, with Thomas Taylor, Phineas Bushnell, John Hoyt, James Benedict, Samuel Benedict, James Bebee and Judah Gregory, purchased from the Indians the territory now embraced in the towns of Danbury, Bethel, New Fairfield, Redding, Ridgefield and a portion of Derby, and in 1685, made the first permanent settlement of Danbury. Thomas Barnum fixed his location in that portion of the town, which in 1855 became a part of the present town of Bethel, known today as the Old Homestead at Grassy Plain, where he died Dec. 26, 1695, aged 70 years. It appears from the history of that time and locality, that Thomas Barnum was a man of more than ordinary intelligence, as found among the immigrants of that period, as he was the most prominent in church and also in town affairs. He was charged by his fellow settlers with all those duties regarding the exercise of intelligence and education. He formulated the articles of agreement between the first eight settlers as the form of Civil Government they should have in their new town. Was among the first to organize a church and establish a school. At this period almost all new towns regarded local Government as independent of the King, or Colonial dictation. The inhabitants, being, or deeming themselves, a Law unto Themselves, hence they entered into a compact and provided their own Laws.
